REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN

George T. Urquhart

Two years pass very quickly and it has been that length of time since you accorded me the honour of becoming your sixteenth Chairman. It has been a challenging and difficult period for APEC but one I believe we can all look back upon with some considerable degree of satisfaction.

In April 1981 Dr. James McNiven, Executive Vice President, moved on to accept an appointment with the Nova Scotia Government. At that time Andy Williamson assumed office as Acting Executive Vice President, and in September 1981 became Acting President as a result of upgrading of titles at our last annual meeting. Andy Williamson, now with the Ontario Government, provided dedicated leadership from April 1981 to June 1982. He will be remembered for his sincerity and hard work on behalf of APEC as the Council examined its operations and made plans for the necessary changes of direction to better serve its members and the Atlantic Provinces. I, and all members of the Board of Governors, wish Andy well in his future endeavours.

A Search Committee was structured in June 1982 with J. R. Ellis, our Treasurer, as Chairman with the mandate to look for a new President. It is expected this Committee will complete its responsibility prior to our annual meeting in Halifax and that the Board of Governors will introduce the new President at that time.

In June 1982 the federal Department of Regional Economic Expansion, through its Minister Hon. Herb Gray, announced a grant of $200,000 to APEC, payable over the next two years. These funds will enable APEC to concentrate more fully on the development of its potential. In making the announcement of June 7, the Hon. Mr. Gray stated, "APEC is highly respected for its independence of thought and quality of work, and we share its desire to move away from contract research work and increase its involvement in independent investigation." Following the announcement of the grant, the Board of Governors have been planning the future course and direction of APEC so that it will be enabled to promote and encourage the economic and social development of the entire Atlantic region so that the four provinces may share fully in and make their maximum contribution to Canada's national development.

The Board of Governors also greatly appreciate the continuing financial grants of the four Atlantic Provinces and it is hoped that this support will continue in the years ahead.

More than ever before, APEC needs the support of its members. Our organization's primary role has been to serve the members through publications and through research on key economic issues for the Atlantic region. During my term as Chairman, I have been working toward the broadening and strengthening of the membership base and the service that APEC provides to the Atlantic community. Over the next year you will be asked as members of the Council to help this organization grow in order to influence changes for the betterment of the Atlantic economy.

My second year as Chairman was made easier by the support I received from the Governors and staff and I wish to thank them all. The Board has held six regular meetings. Two Governors did not re-offer last year and we thank John Lloyd and John A. Smallman for their services on the Board. Four new Governors were added: Fred Arsenault, John F. McNeill, W.J.A. Rowe, and Robert Watson.

We have endeavoured to keep members informed through regular issues of the Newsletter and the quarterly Atlantic Report, and news releases have been issued from time to time. I have been invited to speak on several occasions, and staff members as well have addressed a wide variety of organizations in the region. The editorial content of the Supplement to the January 1982 issue of Atlantic Insight was prepared by APEC staff; a similar type of publication is planned for January 1983.

During the year the Board of Governors in an effort to control and reduce expenditures closed the offices in St. John's, Newfoundland and Fredericton, New Brunswick. As the outgoing Chairman, and taking into consideration the federal grant, it is my intention to recommend to the Board that the Fredericton office be re-opened during the next year.

APEC has an important part to play in the future economic development of this region as an independent voice. I am confident in Atlantic Canada's future, and I am confident in APEC's future.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members,
Atlantic Provinces Economic Council

We have examined the balance sheet of the Atlantic Provinces Economic Council as at June 30, 1982 and the statement of revenue and expenditure for the year then ended and have obtained all the information and explanations we have required. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances, except as explained in the following paragraph.

We have been unable to obtain sufficient audit evidence to form an opinion with respect to the grant receivable described in note 2 of the financial statements.

In our opinion, and according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us and as shown by the books of the Council, except for the effect of the adjustment, if any, which we might have determined to be necessary had we been able to satisfy ourselves with respect to the account receivable described in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the affairs of the Council as at June 30, 1982 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

APEC's Aims and Accomplishments

APEC's aim is to promote and encourage the economic and social development of the whole Atlantic Provinces so that they may share fully in, and make their maximum contribution to, Canada's national development.

APEC strives to achieve this purpose through the pursuit of four primary objectives.

— The encouragement of substantial increases in employment and productivity.
— The promotion of the most efficient use of the region's total resources — both human and material.
— The recommendation of public policies and programs that will stimulate economic and social development.
— The encouragement of inter-provincial and federal-provincial co-operation and co-ordination.

Among the measures which APEC has successfully advocated, these stand out:

— Creation of the Maritime Power Pool
— Establishment of the Atlantic Development Board.
— Direct incentives to industry to locate in slow-growth areas.

Realisations et Objectifs du CEPA

Le CEPA a pour but de promouvoir le développement économique et social de toutes les provinces atlantiques, afin que celles-ci puissent bénéficier du développement du Canada et y apporter une contribution importante.

Le CEPA cherche à réaliser cet objectif par quatre moyens:

— En favorisant la création de nouveaux emplois et l'augmentation de la productivité;
— En favorisant l'utilisation la plus efficace possible de toutes les ressources humaines et matérielles de la région atlantique;
— En recommandant des politiques et des programmes susceptibles de stimuler de développement économique et social;
— En favorisant la coopération et la collaboration entre les gouvernements provinicaux et entre ceux-ci et le gouvernement fédéral.

Les suivantes sont quelques-unes des mesures qui ont été recommandées avec succès par le CEPA:

— Mise en commun des ressources énergétiques des provinces atlantiques;
— Création du Conseil de Développement de l'Atlantique;
— Stimulants payés directements aux industries pour favoriser leur implantation dans les milieux à croissance faible;
— Désignation de toute la région atlantique comme zone d'application de ces stimulants;
— Etablissement de parc industriels dans les centres les plus importants;
— Coordination plus étroite entre les divers programmes fédéraux pour le développement régional;
— Décentralisation des services du Ministère de l'expansion économique régionale.
